the depths of electronic music

hearing the name andre rozzo, quite a lot of us are involuntary confronted with a bunch of sweet reminiscences from those innocent years, when techno & house took off; probably even followed by sound-clips from "into your heart", released on "bush records" in 1994. yes, rozzo might be seen as a veteran, having his most popular time in the middle/end of the nineties.

not so peter dildo! he's here, among us, running the celebrated labels "track-down records" and "mountain people"; releasing stronger than ever.

rozzo & dildo are in fact the identical person. who else than this man is able to show and explain to us, how things are connected?
