dubjazzdeeptech-house

he's a german producer and delivers the very first live-act we ever had on p45 radio: sarrass (freiburg i.br., germany) to create his own musical world, sarrass brings together different producing techniques, from computer-based tools to analogue instruments (such as trumpet or piano) that he's playing himself or together with friends. not to withhold that he's also working with perfectly matched visual material that can be discovered over his homebases: www.sarrass.de - www.myspace.com/sarrass - www.virb.com/sarrass. so, we won't loose our time by categorizing his style, and open ourselves to experience a grooving unknown. great to have people like him in our radio-show! sarrass is introduced by new.com (p45/cmfrt_ns_prdctns)
