deepelectrominimaltechhouse

back in the days, where one could listen to good music on the radio, ida (piratebeats/beatpirates) discovered in a show called "let's dance" a new style of music: acid house. it was love at first sight. since then, his passion for electronic (dance) music is pushing him forward in his search for new tracks. in the p45 radio august-06-show, ida presents us not only tracks of his current dj-set, but also sounds that influenced him as an enthusiastic music lover
