house.tech-funk.soul

born in the valais, gravina starts taking interest in electronic music at the beginning of the 90's, after experiencing shortly hip-hop and french variety music. fascinated not only by chicago and new york house, but also by the more tech-funk sounds of detroit and toronto, he will promote both styles by organizing many events in switzerland. between 2001 and 2006, gravina settles in the swiss german part of switzerland. this experience will lead him on a more groovy and minimal musical path. gravina nevertheless always kept his mind open, allowing him to sign his own personal project: electronicmusiclovers. gravina's deep, jazzy, funky and sexy dj sets are a subtle mix of old and recent productions, mostly from the usa. gravina is introduced by new.com (p45/cmfrt_ns_prdctns/dub_ex_machina).
